

PRIVACY POLICY WEBSITE

Information notice pursuant to art. 13 Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR)

WHY THESE INFORMATION

Pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 ("GDPR"), this page describes how personal data are processed. This information notice is provided pursuant to art. 13 GDPR and is not valid for other websites of third parties, which may be consulted through links on the present website. The Data Controller is not responsible for the websites of third parties.

In particular, in the area "Wine" of this website there are links to the website of "Cantina Vallepicciola", that will provide its privacy policy. There is no transfer of data.

Processable personal data

Personal Data: any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ("data subject"); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person (Recital 26, 27, 30 GDPR).

Data relating to Contracting parties/Users

Navigation data

Computer systems and software procedures used to the operation of this website acquire, during their normal operation, some personal data whose transmission is implicit in the internet communication protocols. This information is not collected to be associated with identified data subject, but by their nature could, through processing and association with data held by third parties, allow users to be identified. This category of data includes IP addresses or domain names of computers used by users who connect to the site, URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) of requested resources, the time of the request, the method used to submit the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in reply, the numerical code indicating the status of the response from the server (successful, error, etc..) and other parameters regarding the operating system and computer environment. These data are used for the sole purpose of obtaining anonymous statistical information on the use of the site and to check its correct functioning and are deleted immediately after processing. The data will be used to foresee liabilities in case of computer criminal offences against this site.

Personal data provided by data subjects

The optional, explicit and voluntary sending of messages to the contact addresses indicated on this site and/or the filling in data collection forms and/or the provision of personal data during exhibition and events results in the acquisition of the sender's address, necessary to reply to requests, as well as any other personal data provided.

Information on the processing of personal data by way of the social media platforms

As for the processing of personal data that is carried out by the social media platforms used by the Data Controller, please consider the information provided by those platforms through their privacy policies. The Data Controller processes the personal data provided by users through the social media pages in order to handle user interactions (comments, public posts, etc) in full compliance with the applicable legislation.

Specific information notices

Specific information notices may be present on the pages of this site in relation to particular services or processing of personal data provided.

What cookies are

Cookies are small text files containing information generated by a web site's server and placed on a user's-visitor's personal computer, where they are stored and then retransmitted to during the next visit. "Third parties" cookies are instead set by a website other than the one the user is visiting. This happens because on each site there may be elements (images, maps, sounds, specific links to web pages of other domains, etc.) that reside on different hosting-servers. Cookies are employed for different purposes: execution of computer authentication, sessions' monitoring, storage of information relating to specific configurations from users accessing the platform, preferences' storage, etc. Hereunder you will find all the information about cookies installed by this site, and the necessary information on how to manage your preferences.
